Centre Safe for Students

Centre Safe is a nonprofit organization serving Centre County. All services provided are free, professional, and confidential.

All of Centre Safe's services are voluntary, FREE, located within walking distance of campus, and can be provided virtually.

How can Centre Safe assist victims of sexual harassment, sexual misconduct, dating violence, domestic violence, and stalking?

Centre Safe's knowledgeable counselors, advocates, and attorneys can assist by:

- Providing emotional support and counseling in a confidential setting.
- Helping victims navigate Penn State and community resources and systems.
- Offering information about the law enforcement process and options for reporting.
- Providing legal advice to complainants in the Title IX process.
- Providing an attorney-advisor for complainants in the Title IX process.
- Providing advocacy with outside agencies, including law enforcement and the hospital.
- Assisting with filing for a civil Protection From Abuse Order or Sexual Violence Protection Order, if appropriate.

How are Centre Safe's services different from services you might receive from Penn State?

- Centre Safe's services are entirely confidential for adult victims.
- Centre Safe has no obligation to report disclosures of sexual assault or misconduct to Penn State.

- Centre Safe's attorney-advisors are independent of Penn State.

How can I contact Centre Safe if I am interested in counseling or advocacy services?
